Sir,

Home Security Circular No.167/1940.

F.B. Circular No. 100/1940.

Scottish Home Department

Fire Brigades Division Circular No.L.129/40.

Relations between the Civil Defence Services and the Local Defence Volunteer Force.

I am directed by the Minister of Home Security to enclose herewith copies of a leaflet which has been prepared in agreement with G.H.Q. Home Forces on the relations between the Civil Defence Services and the Local Defence Volunteer Force. The duties and functions of the new Force are now being more closely defined, and experience has

The Clerk of the County Council,
The County Clerk,
The Town Clerk,
The Clerk of the District Council,
The Chief Constable,
The Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade,
The Firemaster.

show the need for close contact between the two services and a clear understanding on the part of members of each service of the duties of the other. Copies of the leaflet are being circulated by G.H.Q. Home Forces to military authorities and copies should be made available to A.R.P. Controllers and sub-Controllers and to Chief Air Raid Wardens.

The leaflet also calls attention to certain matters which are of special importance from the point of view of the police and fire services.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

H. E. Munro

Issued to all local authorities, chief officers of police, and chief officers of fire brigades (or firemasters) in England, Wales and Scotland.
